Juan José Lozano & Hollman Morris

Colombia today: the biggest trial against paramilitary armies - accused of killing thousands of Colombians - is designed to create "peace and justice".

Instead the process comes to an abrupt halt, when the political and economic interests in the paramilitary war are uncovered. Are the victims' families doomed to stay victims forever or are they able to fight Impunity?

Guest Speakers

Reinaldo Villalba

Vice-president of the CAJAR Lawyers Collective, a widely respected firm that represents victims of gross human rights violations in Colombia

&

Emma Reynolds MP

Member of Parliament for Wolverhampton North East and Shadow Foreign Office Minister
