Volunteer Orientation Registration Form September 19, 2009, Durham, NC

Part 1 - Personal Information:

Name: _____

Mailing Address: _____

E-mail Address: _____

Phone(s): _____

Please list any dietary restrictions: _____

Part 2 - Questions: Please answer the following questions on the back of this form as clearly and completely as possible. Your feedback will aid in the design of a fun and informative orientation.

1. What would you like to take away from this orientation? Are you considering specific volunteer opportunities with PBI-USA (i.e. specific field project)? If so, which?
2. Do you know of others who might be interested in attending? If possible, please offer their contact information so we may invite them to orientation.

Part 3 - Special Notes:

Lodging/Food: PBI-USA will send out information regarding affordable lodging options to participants. PBI-USA will be providing breakfast, lunch and dinner during Orientation, but will not be responsible for other needs (i.e. snacks between meals).

Participation: Interested individuals often ask if they can participate for only part of the program. The short answer is that we request that each participant commit to staying for the entirety of Orientation. We recognize that an entire day is a significant investment of your time. We believe that such investment is necessary. It has been our experience that Orientation is more productive for participants if they expect to complete the program and can count on their fellow participants to do so also. The Orientation will run all day Saturday. If you expect to be unable to attend the whole day, you MUST make a special request along with all relevant details with this registration form!

Registration Fee: We work hard to ensure that the Orientation Weekend is affordable for participants. As such, we have instituted a registration fee to cover basis expenses of $30 which will need to be received alongside your registration form in order to confirm registration.

BY RETURNING THIS FORM, YOU ARE EXPRESSING YOUR COMMITMENT TO STAY FOR THE ENTIRE ORIENTATION (BARRING UNFORESEEN CIRCUMSTANCES) AND AGREE TO ACTIVELY PARTICIPATE IN THE ORIENTATION.

Registration Deadline: Friday, September 11, 2009

Please return:
