

Defending Human Rights and Non-Violent Activism: Saving Lives and Promoting Peace

Peace Brigades International in Indonesia

Tour Schedule

- Sept 30-Seattle
7:00-9:00pm
University Friends
Meeting House (4001
9th Ave. NE)
$10(adults), $5(students)
- Oct 1-Portland
6:00-8:00pm
Portland State
University - Smith
Memorial Student
Union Room 236 (1825
SW Broadway)
- Oct 2-Los Angeles
5:30-7:30p
University of Southern California Taper Hall
(THH) 101 (3501
Trousdale Parkway)
- Oct 3-Santa Cruz
6:00-8:00pm
Friends Meeting House
(225 Rooney St.)
- Oct 4-San Francisco
5:00-7:00pm
Meridian Gallery (535
Powell St)
$25 (adults)

Featuring: Tiffany Easthom - Project Coordinator for PBI-Indonesia

Tiffany will speak about:

- Peace Brigades International's use of nonviolent strategies to protect human rights activists from intimidation and political violence
- Indonesia's human rights organizations and the current political environment
- Field volunteer opportunities and other ways to help

Peace Brigades International (PBI) is an international NGO that has been dedicated to promoting nonviolence and defending human rights since 1981. PBI's teams provide unarmed protective accompaniment to empower human rights defenders around the world. PBI currently maintains projects in Colombia, Indonesia, Guatemala, Mexico, and Nepal.

Get your ticket prior to the event or at the door for a suggested donation of $20 (for adults) or $10 (students)-No one will be turned away!

...

Sponsored by: Peace Brigades International-USA <http://www.pbiusa.org>

For more information, please email: Suzanne Morrell, PBI Tour Coordinator (stmorrell@gmail.com) or call (202) 232-0142.

"They Bring the Courage...We Supply the Hope!"