

Peace Brigades International-Colombia Project (PBI Colombia) needs International Observers to work for the protection of human rights defenders and displaced communities in Colombia.

You must be over 25, speak spanish fluently and have work experience in NGOs.

Peace Brigades International is an humanitarian organisation committed to the non-violent resolution of conflicts. PBI ´s main objective is to help create a breathing space in conflict zones so that the civilian population may organise to defend its rights without fear of reprisals and violence. PBI is an independent organisation not affiliated to any religious or political institution.
